Buffalo Sabres Executive Team

Terrence M. Pegula Owner

Back in 1983, Terry Pegula told his business partner Robert H. Long, Jr., “If I ever have more than two nickels to my name, I’m going to buy the Buffalo Sabres one day.” Now, almost 30 years later, Terry’s dream has come to fruition.

On Feb. 22, 2011, Pegula became the fourth owner in Buffalo Sabres franchise history. On the day Pegula was introduced as owner, the Sabres were 27-25-6 and sat in ninth place in the Eastern Conference - five points out of a playoff spot. Pegula’s purchase not only reenergized the fan base, but the players as well. With Pegula now at the helm, the Sabres went on a 16-4-4 run over the final 24 games of the season to finish seventh in the East. This included a 9-1-2 record at home, and HSBC Arena – which quickly became known as “Pegulaville” – was sold out for all 12 games of the new era of Sabres ownership.

Soon after purchasing the Sabres, Pegula explored the idea of acquiring the Rochester Americans, the AHL team that had previously spent 29 years as the Sabres’ affiliate before a three-year hiatus. On June 24, 2011, the Sabres announced the reunification of the Western New York teams.

Pegula’s interest in the NHL began when the Sabres faced the Philadelphia Flyers in the 1975 Stanley Cup Final. His affection for the “French Connection” Line began with that series, and led to his affinity for the Sabres franchise. While operating East Resources Inc. in Western New York and Pittsburgh throughout the 1980’s and 90’s, and living in Vestal, Olean and Orchard Park during that span, Terry first bought season tickets at the Memorial Auditorium in 1980. He remained a loyal Sabres season ticket holder for the next 18 seasons.

Born in 1951 and raised in Carbondale, PA, he attended high school at Scranton Preparatory School. Pegula entered Penn State University as a Math major, but in order to stay in school he entered the Petroleum and Natural Gas Engineering program through a scholarship. He went on to graduate with a Bachelor of Science degree in 1973, and landed his first job with Getty Oil Co. in Victoria, TX. He later joined Felmont Oil Co., a decision that first brought him to Olean, NY, in 1975.

In 1983, he borrowed $7,500 from family and friends to found East Resources Inc., an independent oil and gas exploration and development company. Over the next 27 years, he built it into one of the largest privately held companies in the United States. In July of 2010, Royal Dutch Shell purchased the assets of East Resources Inc. for $4.7 billion (US). That sale allowed the Pegulas to make their first foray into the hockey world.

On September 17, 2010, Terry and his wife, Kim, donated $88 million to Penn State University – the largest private gift in the history of the school – to fund a state-of-the-art, multi-purpose arena, a world-class practice facility and help to establish an NCAA Division I men’s hockey program. Thanks to their generosity, Penn State is now able to add both men’s and women’s varsity hockey teams, and they will both begin play in the 2012-13 season. The building will include two ice sheets, and serve as the only major ice facility within an 80-mile radius of State College. In addition to providing hockey and figure skating opportunities for the entire Central Pennsylvania region, it will also be used for a broad range of campus and community activities. With design and construction meetings being held currently, Penn State hopes to break ground on the University Park campus for the Pegula Ice Arena later this year.

Terry and Kim currently reside in Boca Raton, FL, and have five children: Michael (33), Laura (29), Jessica (17), Kelly (15) and Matthew (12). Pegula’s younger daughters, Jessica and Kelly, were both born in Buffalo. A native of nearby Rochester, NY, Kim Pegula is a 1991 graduate of nearby Houghton College with a degree in Communications, and was involved with East Resources since 1991. Together they have also founded Black River Music Group, a country music label based in Nashville, TN, and Ayrault Sports Agency based in Charlotte, NC.

Buffalo Sabres Executive Team

Theodore Black President & Alternate Governor

As president of the Buffalo Sabres, Ted Black oversees all aspects of the day-to-day operations of the franchise, with specific focus on making the Buffalo Sabres the premier destination for NHL players and a first-rate environment for the Sabres' current and future employees. In addition, Ted provides strategic and creative leadership in areas including corporate partnerships, advertising, NHL relations, team marketing, Sabres' television broadcasts, fan relations and ticket sales.

With the 2011 reunification of the Sabres and the Rochester Americans, Ted became the President for the AHL team as well. His plan is to bring the same vision and the same goals to the Amerks as he has to the Sabres, with the ultimate goal of winning championships at both levels.

Over the last decade, Ted has compiled a track record of success and experience that few sports executives can match. Ted is an accomplished leader who contributed to and presided over unprecedented growth with both the Pittsburgh Penguins and FSN Pittsburgh. He enjoys close relationships with top executives, corporate sponsors, professional sports teams, television networks and at the National Hockey League.

In late 2010, Terry Pegula enlisted Ted to undertake the task of assembling and leading the group of professionals to advise Mr. Pegula on the acquisition of the Buffalo Sabres. Ted's responsibilities included guiding the transaction negotiations, due diligence and NHL approval process.

Previously, Ted served as the Senior Vice President and General Manager of FSN Pittsburgh, a regional sports television network that produced and telecast more than 220 live pro events and 1,500 hours of programming per year. Under Ted's executive leadership, FSN Pittsburgh grew advertising revenues every year and televised a record number of live pro events. The station also generated record revenues, record earnings, record ratings and was widely recognized as the top-rated US-based Regional Sports Network in the National Hockey League.

Prior to his tenure at FSN, Ted was a member of Mario Lemieux's senior management team and served as Vice President of the Pittsburgh Penguins from 1999 to 2008. Ted was a member of the core group of executives that helped Lemieux execute one of the most successful franchise transformations in the history of professional sports. Ted was intimately involved in all senior executive-level decisions and strategic planning concerning the marketing, branding, sales and overall business operations and management of the team. In addition to being a key strategist during the Penguins' efforts to get a new arena, Ted served as the day-to-day project leader for the new arena during the pre-construction phase of the project. He also interviewed and helped to recruit Ray Shero to become the club's General Manager. Ted was active with the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton Penguins and served as the team's Alternate Governor to the AHL.

In 2005, Ted was honored and recognized by Pittsburgh Magazine as a "Forty Under Forty" community leader. He served as Chairman of the American Heart Association's 2011 Buffalo Niagara Heart Walk and was Honorary Chairman of the 19th Annual Big Brothers and Big Sisters of Niagara County Charity Golf Tournament.

Ted is a 1987 graduate of Allegheny College and he received his J.D. from the University of Pittsburgh School of Law in 1990. Ted now lives in Buffalo with his wife, Amy, and their two hockey-playing sons, Andrew (19) and Nathan (16).

Buffalo Sabres Executive Team

Ken Sawyer Senior Advisor & Alternate Governor

Ken Sawyer is entering his second year as Senior Advisor for the Buffalo Sabres. Sawyer's primary duty is to assist owner Terry Pegula on major organizational and hockey-related decisions for the franchise.

Sawyer's working career spans 40 years, including 14 as the Chief Financial Officer of the National Hockey League and 11 years as a senior executive of the Pittsburgh Penguins. He joined the Penguins in September 1999, the day after the team emerged from bankruptcy protection under a new ownership group led by Mario Lemieux. He first served as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, becoming President in 2003 and later being appointed Chief Executive Officer in 2006.

Under his leadership, the Penguins adopted a strategic plan to ensure that the team would be successful both on the ice and as a business, and thus be assured of a long future in Pittsburgh. During his tenure, the on-ice product was rebuilt and now consists of one of the best rosters of young players in the NHL, including superstars Sidney Crosby and Evgeni Malkin. In 2009, the team reached the pinnacle of success on the ice, winning the Stanley Cup for the third time in franchise history. As CEO, Sawyer oversaw all of the Penguins' operations and the team has emerged as a tremendous success off the ice as well, selling out every game since early 2007. Sawyer led efforts to finance and then construct the Consol Energy Center, which opened in August 2010.

Sawyer also has extensive experience in League matters after representing the Penguins as a Governor of the NHL and serving as Chief Financial Officer of the NHL for 14 years. During that time he served on every major committee of the NHL.

Sawyer is a graduate of McGill University in his native Montreal, Que., and a member of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants. He is a past member of the Board of Trustees of the Carnegie Hero Fund and a current member of the Board of Trustees of the Heinz History Center in Pittsburgh. In 2010, Sawyer was honored as a recipient of the Management Achievement Award from the Faculty of Management at McGill University. Ken and his wife, Shirley, reside in Stuart, Fla. and have two married sons and three grandchildren.

Buffalo Sabres Executive Team

Cliff Benson Senior Advisor

Cliff Benson is entering his second year as Senior Advisor with the Buffalo Sabres for the 2011-12 season. Benson's duties as Senior Advisor will be supplemented by work with the Buffalo Sabres Foundation.

Benson, a CPA and attorney, served the Deloitte Tax LLP organization for 37 years, including 10 years as lead client service partner in the market place function. He became partner in 1981 and served in the New York and South Florida offices before transferring to Pittsburgh and eventually retiring in May 2010.

In 2000, Benson, along with members of the Pittsburgh Penguins Alumni, formed Hockey in the Hood. Founded with a grant from the National Hockey League's Diversity Task Force and assistance from the Pittsburgh Penguins, Hockey in the Hood (now called Pittsburgh ICE) was one of 40 major diversity ice hockey programs throughout the United States and Canada with the goal of reaching underprivileged inner-city children by teaching them skating and ice hockey lessons.

Benson served as the lead client service partner for the worldwide services provided to the United States Steel Corporation and H.J. Heinz. Other clients served over his long career at Deloitte include Armco, Bayer Corporation, Marathon Oil, PPG Industries, Rockwell International, the Pittsburgh Penguins and East Resources.

Benson is passionate about serving the community and has been actively involved in charitable organizations for most of his career – primarily those that benefit inner city children with limited opportunities. He is affiliated with Quaker Valley Hockey Association, Imani Christian Academy (Board Chair), Pittsburgh Kids Foundation, Silver Ring Thing and The Second Mile (Finance Chair). Cliff was privileged to make three trips to Haiti bringing medical relief following the 2010 earthquake.

Darcy Regier General Manager

The 2011-12 season will be the 15th year Darcy Regier serves as General Manager for the Buffalo Sabres, the longest tenure of any GM in the 41-year history of the franchise. The Sabres have posted a regular season record of 526-390-150 under Regier's guidance, while also advancing to the Stanley Cup Finals in 1999 and making four Eastern Conference Finals appearances (1998, 1999, 2006 and 2007). Regier and head coach Lindy Ruff form the longest-serving GM/ Head Coach combination in pro sports, and have had more success than any tandem in franchise history.

Regier and his scouting staff have consistently built a solid foundation of talent, year after year, through the NHL Entry Draft. Proof of their drafting success can be seen every time the Sabres take the ice. In the 2010-11 season, nine of the team's top 12 goal scorers were acquired through the Entry Draft and have spent time with the team's AHL affiliates. This list includes Thomas Vanek, Derek Roy, Jason Pominville and Drew Stafford – all of whom later signed long-term contracts with the Sabres.

The long-term success of Regier's draft picks can often be spotted early, as his draft picks have made a habit of scooping up numerous AHL awards while playing for the Sabres' affiliate teams. AHL award-winners have included three consecutive AHL Rookie of the Year winners: Nathan Gerbe (2008-09), Tyler Ennis (2009-10) and Luke Adam (2010-11); AHL Goaltender of the Year, Ryan Miller, for the 2004-05 season and 2011 AHL Defenseman of the Year, Marc-Andre Gragnani. His draft selections have gone on to win awards at the NHL level as well, with Miller being awarded the 2010 Vezina Trophy and 2008 first-round selection Tyler Myers winning the Calder Trophy that same year.

Regier has found a lot of success in the earlier rounds of the draft. Buffalo's roster includes several players who were drafted in the first or second round since Regier's first draft in 1997, including: Vanek (1st, 2003), Roy (2nd, 2001), Pominville (2nd, 2001), Myers (1st, 2008), Ennis (1st, 2008) and Stafford (1st, 2004). Each of these early-round draft picks was among the top eight goal scorers on the team during the 2010-11 season. Regier and his staff recently secured another early-round pick, Jhonas Enroth (2nd, 2006), to a two-year deal this offseason.

Productive players have also been found in later rounds, from veterans like Miller (5th, 1999) and Paul Gaustad (7th, 2000), to youngsters such as Gerbe (5th, 2005) who has already made an impact in the organization. Gerbe joined Sabres draft pick, Andrej Sekera (3rd, 2004), in signing a multi-year deal during the offseason.

The hockey department's success hasn't been limited to their hard work on draft day. Several trades and free agent signings this off-season have landed Buffalo exceptional talent for the upcoming season. This summer saw Regier aggressively bolster the defense by acquiring Christian Ehrhoff and Robyn Regehr. The Sabres acquired Regehr along with seasoned veteran Ales Kotalik, who last played with the Sabres in the 2008-09 season. Forward Ville Leino was also acquired through free agency and signed a multi-year deal during the offseason.

Prior to joining the Sabres, Regier served in roles with the New York Islanders as Director of Hockey Administration, Assistant Coach, and Assistant General Manager. While on Long Island, he supervised the club's amateur development, and saw their International Hockey League affiliate win back-to-back championships (Denver Grizzlies in 1994-95 and then, after moving to Salt Lake City, the Utah Grizzlies in 1995-96). Legendary Islanders coach Al Arbour, along with Bill Torrey, who served in roles as General Manager, President, Chairman of the Board and Consultant with New York, were significant contributors to Regier's career in hockey. Regier left the Islanders organization briefly in the 1991-92 season to serve as an assistant coach with the Hartford Whalers.

Born in Swift Current, Saskatchewan, Regier was the fifth choice (77th overall) of the California Golden Seals in the 1976 Amateur Draft. He appeared in 26 NHL games over the course of three seasons with the Cleveland Barons and the New York Islanders, totaling two assists and 35 penalty minutes. Regier played parts of eight seasons of professional hockey and was a member of three championship teams. In 1982, he was named a First Team All-Star with Indianapolis (IHL), where he learned from one of the people he considers an influence on his hockey life, current Detroit Red Wings Senior Vice President Jim Devellano, then the team's general manager.

During his playing career, Regier was also involved in the early setup of the Professional Hockey Players' Association.

Darcy and his wife, Katherine, reside in Clarence and have three sons: Jonathan, Justin and Jarrett.

Lindy Ruff Head Coach

On July 21, 1997, Lindy Ruff was hired to be the 15th head coach in Buffalo Sabres history. Fourteen years and many milestones later, Ruff stands alone as the longest tenured head coach in the NHL and the third-longest tenured coach in all professional major league sports in the U.S. During his career, Ruff has not only become the winningest coach in Sabres history, but his success and longevity have put him among the top coaches in league history.

Last season, Ruff led the Sabres to a record of 43-29-10 and to the playoffs for the second straight year. The playoff appearance was the eighth in Ruff's career and brought his playoff winning percentage to .564, the best record in franchise history. His 57 playoff wins also places him 15th all-time among NHL coaches.

The successful 2010-11 campaign not only gave Ruff his sixth 40-win season, but also propelled him past NHL coaching legends in both career wins and games coached. He finished the season with 526 career wins, passing Hall of Fame coaches Glen Sather (497) and Toe Blake (500) and finishing ahead of Pat Burns (501) at 14th all-time. Entering the 2011-12 season, his career record stands at 526-390-150. Ruff finished the season by coaching his 1,066th game, which lands him 13th all-time in league history. Among active coaches, Ruff ranks sixth in both games coached and wins.

What sets Ruff apart is the success he's had with a single franchise. Ruff has spent his entire head coaching career leading the Sabres and now ranks second in league history in games coached (1,066) and wins (526) with a single franchise. He trails only the legendary Al Arbour, who coached 1,500 games and won 740 contests with the New York Islanders.

Ruff established himself as one of the league's premier coaches early in his career. He reached the playoffs in his first season, an achievement none of his predecessors had ever experienced. The 1997-98 squad set a team record by winning eight straight playoff games and tied the club mark with 10 playoff wins. The Conference Finals appearance was the team's first since 1980, which, ironically, was Ruff's rookie year with Buffalo.

In only his second season as head coach, Ruff led the 1998-99 Sabres to their first Stanley Cup Finals appearance in 24 years and established himself as one of the league's top coaches. He also achieved a club record that season for the most wins (14) in one playoff year. In the process, Ruff became only the third head coach under the present Stanley Cup Playoff format to lead his team to the Conference Finals in each of his first two seasons.

After the NHL Lockout in 2004-05, the Sabres would yet again experience unquestioned success under Ruff's leadership. He led the surprising Sabres to the Eastern Conference Finals in 2005-06, where the team lost on the road in Game 7 against the Carolina Hurricanes. For these accomplishments, Ruff was honored by the NHL with the Jack Adams Award as the league's Coach of the Year, joining Ted Nolan (1997) as the only other head coach in team history to receive this honor.

During the 2006-07 season, the Sabres had their finest year under Ruff statistically when the team won a franchise-record 53 games and captured the first Presidents' Trophy in club history, while leading both the Northeast Division and Eastern Conference from wire-to-wire. This was also the first time in franchise history the Sabres had posted back-to-back 50-win seasons. Buffalo returned to the Eastern Conference Finals for the second consecutive season, and the fourth time under Ruff's guidance. On April 5, 2007, a 5-4 Buffalo victory over Ottawa made Ruff the 31st coach in NHL history to record 300 career wins, and the 16th in NHL history to reach the milestone with the same team.

Ruff was named to the 2007 NHL All-Star Game for the second time in his career as Head Coach of the Eastern Conference squad, and was runner-up to Vancouver's Alain Vigneault for the Jack Adams Trophy as the NHL's Coach of the Year. Ruff also coached the World team the 1999 All-Star Game in Tampa Bay. He joined Scotty Bowman and Floyd Smith as the only Buffalo coaches to be named as head coach of an All-Star Team.

In 2010, Ruff received yet another honor in his prolific career as he was selected as a member of the coaching staff for the Canadian men's hockey team that took home a gold medal at the 2010 Winter Olympic Games in Vancouver.

Ruff was the Sabres' second-round (32nd overall) draft pick in 1979 following a distinguished career as a defenseman with Lethbridge (WHL). He made the team at his first training camp and played in 63 games. After the 1979-80 season, he was named the team's rookie of the year. Ruff ranks sixth all-time on the Sabres' regular season list in penalty minutes (1,126) and is tied for 12th in games played (608). Lindy Ruff Head Coach

In his 1981-82 season, Ruff was converted to play left wing after having been a defenseman throughout his junior career and first two professional seasons. In November 1986, he received perhaps his greatest individual honor as a Sabre when he was selected to replace Gilbert Perreault as team captain after the legend's retirement.

Ruff ended his playing career after serving as a player/assistant coach for the 1992-93 season with the San Diego Gulls of the IHL. Head Coach Roger Nielson (who coached Ruff in Buffalo and with the Rangers) tabbed Ruff as one of his assistants for the expansion Florida Panthers for the 1993-94 campaign. As the primary coach of the penalty killing unit and defensemen, Ruff received many accolades for his work. In just their third season, the over-achieving and hard-working Panthers squad advanced to the 1996 Stanley Cup Finals.

The 51-year-old Ruff and his wife Gaye reside in Clarence, N.Y., with their four children: Brett (22), Eryn (20), and twins Brian and Madeleine (17).

James Patrick enters his sixth season behind the Sabres' bench as an assistant coach. Following a brief stint as Buffalo's skill development coach early in 2005-06, Patrick spent the remainder of that season finishing his playing career in Germany for the Frankfurt Lions.

Patrick was a first-round selection (ninth overall) of the New York Rangers in the 1981 NHL Entry Draft. During his 21-year career with the Rangers, Hartford Whalers, Calgary Flames and Sabres, the 47-year-old native of Winnipeg, Man., scored 639 points (149+490) in 1,280 regular season games. Prior to his retirement, Patrick was ranked ninth among active players in games played, and was one of three remaining active players from the first-round of the 1981 Entry Draft. Patrick posted seven consecutive seasons (1985-86 to 1991-92) of 40 or more points with the New York Rangers, including a career-high of 71 (14+57) in 1991-92. The 71 points and 57 assists were career-bests for Patrick. He scored a career-high 17 goals in 1987-88.

Patrick played six seasons in Buffalo after signing as an unrestricted free agent on June 7, 1998. He scored 74 points (23+51) in 345 regular season games, and added 5 points (1+4) in 38 playoff games. Patrick's career plus/minus total of plus-104 reflects his steady defensive play. He finished as a minus in just one of six seasons in Buffalo, and in just six of his 21 seasons.

Patrick is also a veteran of international competition, having won championships for Team Canada at the 1982 World Junior Championships and 1987 Canada Cup tournaments, and bronze with the 1983 World Junior team. He also represented Canada in the 1984 Winter Olympics, and the 1983, 1987, 1998 and 2002 World Championships. Patrick and his wife, Deborah, have two daughters: Brennan and Quinn.

Originally selected by Winnipeg in the 2nd round (29th overall) of the 1986 Entry Draft, Numminen went on to play for four different NHL clubs: the Winnipeg Jets (1988-1995), the Phoenix Coyotes (1996-2003), the Dallas Stars (2003-04) and the Buffalo Sabres (2005-09). Over the course of his prolific playing career, Numminen played in 1,372 games, which is a record for the most games played by a European-trained player in the NHL. History Retired Numbers

The Buffalo Sabres have retired only six numbers since the franchise's inception in 1970. The first Sabre to have his number retired was Gilbert Perreault (#11) on Oct. 17, 1990. The combination of center Perreault, left wing Rick Martin and right wing Rene Robert was one of the greatest lines in hockey history and without a doubt the best in Buffalo Sabres' history. The three wore the blue and gold together from 1972 to 1979 and were labeled "The French Connection," a name whose familiarity was helped by the 1971 movie of the same name. The trio was honored as Martin (#7) and Robert (#14) joined Perreault in a ceremony to retire the numbers of Buffalo's famed "French Connection" on Nov. 15, 1995. The fourth Sabre to have his number retired was Tim Horton (#2) on Jan. 5, 1996. The Sabres retired two more numbers during the 2005-06 season. Right winger Danny Gare (#18) was honored on Nov. 22, 2005, while Pat LaFontaine's #16 was hoisted to the rafters on March 3, 2006.

Gilbert Perreault Center (1970-71 to 1986)

Gilbert Perreault can best be described as the "Original Sabre." The NHL Hall of Famer was Buffalo's first-ever draft choice and set the standard for all future Sabres to be measured. Perreault earned the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year following his inaugural 1970-71 campaign. Even Perreault's uniform number bore the marks of an original Sabre, as it was #11 that came up on the wheel that gave Buffalo the first overall pick in the 1970 draft. Perreault's sportsmanship and outstanding play also helped him capture the Lady Byng Trophy in 1973. One of Perreault's six NHL All-Star games was the 1978 edition in Buffalo when he scored the game-winning goal 3:55 into overtime. He also served as the Sabres' team captain from 1981-82 until his November 1986 retirement. Perreault is a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame, as well as both the Buffalo Sabres and Greater Buffalo Sports Halls of Fame. Perreault is still the team's all-time leader in career (regular season) games played, goals, assists, points and game-winning goals. There was only one number 11 in Buffalo Sabres history and, rightfully so, there will never be another.

Rick Martin Left Wing (1970-71 to 1980-81)

Buffalo Sabres fans saw Rick Martin in almost 750 regular season and playoff games between 1971 and 1981. Number 7's career with the Sabres was highlighted by a Stanley Cup Finals appearance in 1974-75. That spring, Martin finished with 52 goals, one of which was the 1,000th in team history. The year prior, on the final night of the 1973-74 campaign, he recorded a hat trick at "The Aud" against St. Louis to become the first player in Sabres' history to record 50 or more goals in one season. Martin even gave the hometown fans a reason to cheer in a game at "The Aud" in which he wasn't wearing a Sabres' uniform. On Jan. 24, 1978, he scored the tying goal in the 31st NHL All-Star Game with just 1:39 left in regulation time to force overtime. That was just one of seven of the League's showcase games he would appear in during his career. He still holds two single-season Sabres records and is tied for another. In addition, Martin remains in the top three in seven of Buffalo's (regular season) career leaders categories. Martin passed away on March 13, 2011, and his life was celebrated in a public memorial service at HSBC Arena on March 24. The team honored his memory by painting the #7 on the ice behind each goal for the remainder of the regular season and playoffs.

Rene Robert Right Wing (1971-72 to 1978-79)

With the warm spring air mixing with "The Aud" ice, Rene Robert skated out of the mist and scored the famous "Fog Goal" by beating Flyers' goalie Bernie Parent in overtime of game three of the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. The historic goal might not have taken place if not for the Sabres' persistence in acquiring Robert. His road to Buffalo started by the Sabres claiming him from Toronto, only to lose the winger to Pittsburgh in the Intra-League draft on June 8, 1971. The Sabres were then able to acquire the final component of "The French Connection" in a trade with the Penguins on March 4, 1972. Robert finished the 1974-75 regular season with 100 points, marking the first time in club annals that a player reached the century mark in points in one season. That season, Robert was voted by his teammates as Buffalo's most valuable player. He later recorded another Sabres milestone by scoring the 2,000th goal in club history on Dec. 22, 1977. Robert still ranks as Buffalo's fifth all-time assist leader with 330 in his career with the Sabres. Coincidentally, Robert had also once worn number 7 in the blue and gold. He played in both the 1973 and 1975 NHL All-Star games.

Tim Horton Defense (1972-73 to 1973-74)

Tim Horton skated in the Sabres' blue, white and gold for only two seasons, but the solid defenseman certainly made his mark on the team. Horton came to Buffalo in the Intra-League draft in June 1972 from Pittsburgh. Following that campaign, proof that he had made an impression on his fourth NHL club (also played for Toronto, N.Y. Rangers and Pittsburgh) came when he was named the recipient of the Memorial Award as the team's most valuable player as voted by his teammates. Today, in honor of the late defenseman, Horton's name is on the Buffalo award presented annually to the player whose performance is far superior to the public recognition he has received (known as the Unsung Hero Award before 1975). Horton saw action in 1,446 NHL regular season games plus 126 more in the postseason. Included in his playing days were eight out of nine complete 70-game seasons played between 1958-59 and 1966-67. Horton was a member of four Stanley Cup winning teams with Toronto and appeared in seven NHL All-Star games. Horton became a member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in 1977 and is also a member of the Buffalo Sabres Hall of Fame.

Pat LaFontaine Center (1991-92 to 1996-97)

Pat LaFontaine enjoyed an illustrious 15-year career before retiring from the NHL in 1998 as the second highest-scoring American-born player with 468 goals and 1,013 points. He was born in St. Louis, but grew up in the suburbs of Detroit, and is still considered one of the game's best playmakers, fastest skaters, and most humble of superstars. A member of the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto, LaFontaine began his career in 1983-84 with the New York Islanders. He had a career year for Buffalo in 1992-93 when he set Sabres records for points (148) and assists (95) in a season. After being sidelined by a serious knee injury for most of the 1993-94 season, he returned as team captain in 1994-95 and was awarded the Bill Masterton Trophy for perseverance and dedication to hockey. LaFontaine was with the Sabres from 1991-1997, finishing with 385 points (158+227) in 268 games. He completed the "Empire State Hat Trick" by playing for all three NHL organizations within New York State when he was traded to the Rangers in 1997. He remained one of the Rangers' leading scorers until injuries forced him to prematurely retire on August 11, 1998.

Danny Gare Right Wing (1974-75 to 1981-82)

Danny Gare played his first game for the Sabres on October 10, 1974 against Boston, and scored just 18 seconds into his first NHL shift. He finished his rookie season with 62 points (31+31) and contributed 13 points (7+6) in the Sabres' run to the 1975 Stanley Cup Finals. Gare followed up his strong rookie campaign with his first of two 50 goal seasons in 1975-76, when he netted 50 goals and 23 assists in 79 games, and chipped in two game-winning goals in the playoffs. That season, Gare recorded three of his 10 career hat tricks as a Sabre. In 1979-80, he scored a career-high 56 goals, including a club-record 11 game-winners. Rick Martin is the only other Sabre to have two 50 goal seasons. With 267 goals as a Sabre, Gare holds the record for goals by a Sabres right wing. He finished his Sabres career with 500 points. Gare's career as a Sabre came to an end on Dec. 2, 1981 when he was traded to the Detroit Red Wings. He spent his final NHL season in Edmonton in 1986-87. The Nelson, B.C. native finished his career with 685 points (354+331), and was inducted into the Sabres Hall of Fame in 1994.

History of the Americans

Established 1956

After three seasons with the Portland Pirates, the Buffalo Sabres renewed their affiliation with the Rochester Americans for the 2011-12 season. With the reuniting of the two organizations, the Sabres and Amerks will begin their 30th season together, one of the longest relationships between an NHL team and its AHL affiliate.

The Amerks are entering their 55th season in the American Hockey League and the team will once again be an essential pipeline for future Sabres stars. The Sabres current roster is filled with 13 former Amerks, including Ryan Miller, Thomas Vanek, Jason Pominville and Drew Stafford.

It was during the 1979-80 campaign that the two organizations first formed a professional hockey partnership. Billy Inglis was the first head coach of the Amerks during the affiliation. Future coaches would include Mike Keenan, Joe Crozier, Jim Schoenfeld, Don Lever, John Van Boxmeer, John Tortorella, Brian McCutcheon and Randy Cunneynworth. Both Keenan (New York Rangers, 1994) and Tortorella (Tampa Bay Lightning, 2004) went on to coach NHL teams to Stanley Cup victories.

Over the 29 years of affiliation, the Amerks have compiled a record of 1,137-932-238-13 in 2,320 regular season games and captured nine regular season titles. During that period, the Amerks have captured three Calder Cup Championships (1983, 1987 and 1996) and have advanced to the Calder Cup Finals six times.

The Sabres and Pirates enjoyed a successful three-year affiliation (2008-2009 to 2010-2011), with the Pirates compiling a 131-79-16-13 overall record and a 1st place finish in the Atlantic Division in 2010-11. During the three-year span, three Pirates players were named Dudley "Red" Garrett Memorial Award winners, an award given to the AHL's most outstanding rookie: Nathan Gerbe (2008-09), Tyler Ennis (2009-10) and Luke Adam (2010-11).

Besides the Sabres, the Amerks have been affiliated with the Montreal Canadiens, Toronto Maple Leafs, Boston Bruins, Vancouver Canucks and Florida Panthers.

Ron Rolston Head Coach

Ron Rolston enters his first season as Head Coach of the Rochester Americans in 2011-12 and first as a professional coach after being named to the position on July 27, 2011. He is the 29th head coach in the history of the Amerks franchise.

Rolston joins the organization after spending the previous seven seasons as a head coach with USA Hockey's National Team Development Program (NTDP), where he led the U.S. Under-18 team to three gold medals and a silver medal in four stints as head coach at the International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) World Under-18 Championship, including the 2011 tournament in Germany. During the 2010-11 season, he also led Team USA to titles in the 2011 Five Nations Tournament and in the 2010 Four Nations Cup. In addition, Rolston's U.S. National Under-18 Team posted a 12-9-1-2 (W-L-OTL-SOL) record in United States Hockey League play in 2010-11, helping the NTDP reach the USHL postseason for the first time. In June, he received the 2011 Bob Johnson Award from USA Hockey, which recognizes excellence in international competition during a season.

The longest-tenured and most decorated head coach in NTDP history, Rolston guided his teams to five medals and multiple tournament championships in international competition. He is the only coach in U.S. history to win three gold medals in the Under-18 World Championship (2005, 2009, 2011). His team also captured a silver medal in the 2007 Under-18 World Championship. Rolston's teams never missed a championship game in either of the two major NTDP tournaments – the IIHF World Under-18 Championship and the World Under-17 Hockey Challenge.

The 44-year-old Rolston joined USA Hockey after serving as an assistant coach at four different NCAA Division I hockey programs between 1990 and 2004, winning National Championships in 1992 and 1994 with Lake Superior State University. Rolston was an assistant coach at Boston College from 2002-04 and also served as the top assistant at Harvard University from 1999-2002 and as an assistant coach at Clarkson University (1996-99) and Lake Superior State University (1990-95).

In addition to winning two national titles at Lake Superior State, Rolston also helped guide the team to three straight appearances in the NCAA National Championship game and four CCHA tournament titles in his five-year stint. He was elevated to associate head coach for the Lakers in 1994. Rolston's younger brother, 16-year NHL veteran Brian Rolston, was a member of the 1992 and '93 squads that Ron helped coach.

Rolston achieved success with the U.S. National Under-17 team during the 2009-10 campaign, by leading the squad to its first World Under-17 Hockey Challenge title since 2002. He had previously led the Under-17 Team to two second-place finishes (2006, 2008) at the tournament.

In 2008-09, Rolston led the U.S. National Under-18 Team to first-place finishes at both the 2008 Men's Under-18 Four Nations Cup in Lake Placid, N.Y., and 2009 Under-18 Five Nations Tournament in Sweden. Team USA finished with a 15-1-0-1 record against international opponents and a 13-13-1 mark against NCAA opponents. The 13 wins against college foes marked an all-time high for an Under-18 team in a single season.

In addition to coaching at the Under-18 and Under-17 levels, Rolston also served as head coach for the U.S. National Junior Team on two occasions. In 2007, he led Team USA to the bronze medal at the IIHF World Junior Championship in Sweden. He was also behind the bench during the 2009 IIHF World Junior Championship in Ottawa.

A native of Fenton, Mich., Rolston attended Michigan Tech University, where he earned his bachelor's degree in business management and was a three-year hockey letterman with the Huskies (1986-89), serving as an alternate captain during his senior season. Rolston was the co-recipient of the Norbert Matovich Memorial Award as Michigan Tech's most outstanding freshman in 1986-87.

Rolston and his wife, Shannon, have two children: Maeve and Ronan.

McKee enters the coaching ranks following a 14-year professional hockey career as a defenseman in the National Hockey League. Selected by Buffalo in the first round (14th overall) of the 1995 NHL Entry Draft, McKee played 24 games with the Amerks over parts of three seasons from 1995 to 1997 before becoming a fixture on the Sabres' blueline.

In 582 games over parts of 10 seasons with the Sabres, McKee registered 17 goals and 81 assists for 98 points, as well as 470 penalty minutes and a plus-45 on-ice rating. During the 2005-06 campaign, McKee tied his career-high with five goals while also leading the NHL with 241 blocked shots.

A native of Kingston, Ontario, McKee also appeared in 51 career playoff games with the Sabres, recording nine points (3+6), while helping lead Buffalo to the 1999 Stanley Cup Finals and the 2006 Eastern Conference Finals.

The 2011-12 campaign marks the sixth straight season Cassidy will share the bench with Rolston.

Cassidy joins the organization following five consecutive seasons as an assistant coach at USA Hockey's National Team Development Program, culminating in a gold medal at the 2011 International Ice Hockey Federation (IIHF) Under-18 World Championships in Germany. During the 2010-11 season, he also led Team USA to titles in the 2011 Five Nations Tournament and in the 2010 Four Nations Cup. In addition, the U.S. National Under-18 Team posted a 12-9-1-2 (W-L-OTL-SOL) record in United States Hockey League play in 2010-11, helping the NTDP reach the USHL postseason for the first time.

During the 2009-10 campaign, Cassidy helped guide the U.S. National Under-17 Team to great international success. While serving as an assistant to Rolston, Cassidy helped lead Team USA to its first title at the 2010 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge since 2002. He also helped pilot the squad to a first-place finish at the 2009 Under-17 Four Nations Cup in Trnava, Slovakia. The U.S. National Under-17 Team finished with a 9-1-1-3 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record against international foes under Rolston and Cassidy's watch. In August, Cassidy served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Under-18 Select Team that finished second at the 2010 Memorial of Ivan Hlinka Tournament in Breclav, Czech Republic, and Piestany, Slovakia.

In 2008-09, Cassidy helped guide the U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team to its fourth gold medal at the 2009 IIHF Men's Under-18 World Championship in Fargo, N.D., and Moorhead, Minn. Additionally, he helped lead Team USA to a 15-1-0-1 (W-OTW-OTL-L) record against international opponents and a 13-13-1 record against college foes.

Cassidy also served as an assistant coach for the U.S. Men's National Under-18 Team that earned the silver medal at the 2007 IIHF World Men's Under-18 Championship in Tampere and Rauma, Finland.

Cassidy has been both an on-ice instructor and team coach at USA Hockey's New York district camps and select festivals. In December 2005, he joined Rolston's staff for the 2006 World Under-17 Hockey Challenge in Regina, Saskatchewan, where Team USA finished second in the 10-team event.

Prior to joining the NTDP, Cassidy served as the head coach for four seasons at the National Sports Academy in his hometown of Lake Placid, N.Y., where he posted a 124-71-15 record. His teams made the final of the Midwest Prep League playoffs every year in his tenure, and won the league championship in 2004.

Cassidy served as an assistant coach at State University of New York at Cortland from 1999-2001 and Potsdam State for the 2001-2002 season. A 1995 graduate of Cortland State, Cassidy earned his bachelor's degree in recreation and leisure studies while playing on the varsity hockey team.

Cassidy, and his wife, Tara, have two children: Sheldon and Ireland.

BUFFALO SABRES Media Guide

Miscellaneous

Radio & Television

In 2011-12, all Buffalo Sabres regular season games will be both televised and simulcast on WGR Sports Radio 550 AM. All 82 of the team's televised regular season games will be broadcast in High Definition. MSG will be the home to 70 broadcasts this season and will be available in HD in the Buffalo/Rochester/Syracuse markets. Buffalo will also appear in 12 nationally televised broadcasts, 10 times on VERSUS and twice on NBC.

This is the fifth year of the 10-year extension to telecast Sabres games, in which MSG will own the exclusive local rights to telecast the team's games. The deal runs through the 2016-17 season. MSG Networks, an industry leader in production and technology, is the nation's longest-running regional sports network. The first regional sports network to produce games in HDTV and winner of 95 New York Emmy Awards, MSG Networks is part of Madison Square Garden L.P. In addition to being home of the Sabres, MSG Network's award-winning programming line-up also boasts the New York Knicks, New York Rangers, New York Islanders, New Jersey Devils, New York Liberty and over 400 live college football and basketball games.

Calling the action for the majority of Sabres' games on MSG telecasts and on WGR 550 AM will be the venerable Rick Jeanneret and Harry Neale. Kevin Sylvester and Sabres legend Danny Gare will fill in as the broadcast team for 23 games throughout the season.

Sylvester and Gare are both familiar faces for Sabres fans. Sylvester has been a member of the Sabres' broadcast team for six seasons, hosting the team's broadcasts since the 2005-06 season. He has filled in for Jeanneret several times since 2008 and will continue to handle play-by-play duties for the upcoming season.

Gare will join Sylvester in the booth as a color analyst. Gare returns to the Sabres' broadcast team after a seven-season absence. In his previous role with the Sabres, Gare worked as the team's rinkside reporter from 1997-98 through 2002-03 before joining the Columbus Blue Jackets as a color analyst. Gare has since filled in for Mike Robitaille as a studio analyst for the Sabres.

Rob Ray, who has been part of the broadcast team since the 2003-04 season, will join Jeanneret and Neale as a second color analyst during their games.

Preceding all game telecasts on MSG there will be a new 30-minute pregame show, sponsored by Tops. The show - hosted by Sylvester and newcomer Brian Duff - will contain player features, a preview of that night's contest and will feature other Sabres broadcast talent, including Ray and analyst Mike Robitaille.

Once again this season, The Lexus Postgame Show, hosted by Sylvester and Duff, will feature highlights and exclusive interviews and can be seen immediately following games on MSG. The Lexus Shootout can be seen following every Sabres home telecast on MSG. Originating from Studio 200 at HSBC Arena, the hosts will be joined by all the Sabres analysts for complete postgame analysis, highlights and player interviews. The first intermission of each MSG telecast is sponsored by Verizon, and the second is sponsored by Northtown Automotive. Buffalo Sabres hockey on MSG is produced by Joe Pinter and directed by Matt Gould.

WGR's coverage will include a post-game show hosted by Brian Koziol featuring a complete game recap, player interviews and scores from around the league. Paul Hamilton will provide live updates from Sabres games, as he returns to serve as WGR's beat reporter for the Buffalo Sabres.

Rick Jeanneret

Currently the longest-tenured broadcaster in hockey, the 2011-12 season marks Rick Jeanneret's 40th year with the Buffalo Sabres. He started with the team prior to the 1971-72 season, serving as the club's radio voice and held that post until 1995. Jeanneret then became the television play-by-play announcer, beginning with the 1995-96 campaign. He broadcast his first game during the 1971 preseason for the Cincinnati Swords (the Sabres' minor league team at the time). Jeanneret earned his start in 1963 while attending a Niagara Falls Flyers (Junior A) game in which he filled in for the regular announcer who had taken ill. He went on to become the color analyst for one season before moving to the play-by-play position in 1965. A native of St. Catharines, Ont., Jeanneret currently resides in Niagara Falls, Ontario, with his wife, Sandra. Rick has two sons, Mark and Chris. Mark is the play-by-play voice of the AHL's Portland Pirates.

Harry Neale

A longtime veteran of both hockey and broadcasting, Harry Neale joined the Sabres broadcast team for the 2007-08 season. He is well known for his work on Hockey Night in Canada which he joined in 1986 following eight years as an NHL coach and general manager. Neale also spent the past 21 seasons working as an analyst on regional coverage of Toronto Maple Leafs games. Before his broadcast career Neale was a former NHL head coach and general manager, Neale worked with the Vancouver Canucks from 1978-82 (head coach and GM), and with the Detroit Red Wings from 1985-86 (head coach). Neale began his career as a coach of the NCAA's Ohio State Buckeyes hockey team in 1966, and also served as coach of the New England whalers and Minnesota Fighting Saints of the World Hockey Association, and the Ontario Hockey Association's Toronto Marlboros. Neale resides in East Amherst, N.Y..

History of the Buffalo Sabres Established 1970

The NHL officially came to Buffalo on Dec. 2, 1969, when the league awarded Seymour and Northrup Knox the franchise that would soon be named "Sabres." The brothers wasted little time in hiring George "Punch" Imlach, formerly of the Toronto Maple Leafs, as the team's first Head Coach and General Manager. In June 1970, the Sabres were awarded the first pick in the NHL Entry Draft, and Imlach selected highly-touted center Gilbert Perreault from the Montreal Jr. Canadiens. Perreault lived up to the advance billing scoring 38 goals his rookie season en route to winning the Calder Trophy as the NHL's Rookie of the Year.

Another Junior Canadian, left winger Rick Martin, joined Perreault on the team's front line as the Sabres' top pick in 1971. That dominating duo turned into a trio when Rene Robert was acquired from the Pittsburgh Penguins near the end of the 1971-72 season. The line of Martin-Perreault-Robert would be dubbed "The French Connection" and would become one of the 1970's most dominating scoring lines.

By 1974-75, the young team was maturing and finished the season with a 49-16-15 record - still the best-ever season numbers in franchise history. Buffalo defeated Chicago in the first round of the playoffs and followed that with a second-round victory over Montreal to earn its first-ever berth in the Stanley Cup Finals vs. Philadelphia. While the Flyers defeated the Sabres in six games, the loss did not blemish the accomplishment of a team which had only been in the league for five years.

One of the most memorable moments in the franchise's first decade occurred Jan. 4, 1976, when the Sabres played the powerful Soviet Wings in an exhibition game at The Aud. With Cold War tensions still running high, the game had an intensity level far beyond the average regular-season game. Buffalo put on a dominating performance, defeating the Wings 12-6 in what ranked at the time as the worst-ever loss by a Soviet team in international competition.

The Sabres had an opportunity to hire one of the game's all-time coaching greats, Scotty Bowman, and did so in 1979. In his first season as head coach, Bowman led the Sabres to the Wales Conference Finals before they lost 4-2 to the eventual Stanley Cup Champion New York Islanders. Bowman finished with an impressive 210-134-60 mark.

Bowman spent the next few seasons revamping the Sabres' lineup, adding players such as Mike Ramsey, Phil Housley, Mike Foligno, Dave Andreychuk and Tom Barrasso. Those players formed the core of successful teams, and helped continue the tradition of winning hockey.

Through the good times and the bad times, there was always Perreault. Robert and Martin had both been traded by the early 1980s, but the original Sabre remained and continued to flourish. On March 9, 1986, Perreault and an Aud full of fans celebrated together as the franchise's favorite son scored his 500th career goal, making him the 12th player in history (at the time) to reach that milestone. Four years later, in 1990, Perreault was immortalized with induction into Hockey's Hall of Fame. This would be an omen of better things to come for the franchise.

Five-time Stanley Cup Champion John Muckler was chosen in 1991 to be the team's Director of Hockey Operations and soon assumed the title of head coach. He was instrumental in acquiring Pat LaFontaine from the Islanders in October 1991. LaFontaine teamed with Russian Alexander Mogilny to form a dynamic duo that combined to score 129 goals in 1992-93, including a franchise-record 76 goals by Mogilny. Buffalo capped that season by sweeping the Bruins in the first round of the playoffs to post its first playoff series win in 10 years.

That playoff excitement was just a precursor to Game Six of the 1994 Eastern Conference Quarterfinals vs. the New Jersey Devils. Buffalo won that game 1-0 in four overtimes on a goal by Dave Hannan. Dominik Hasek posted an incredible 70 saves in the victory, playing the entire 125:43 without allowing a goal. Following that season, Hasek would win the first of two consecutive Vezina Trophies as the NHL's top goaltender. But that would only set the stage for the 1996-97 season.

Before it even started, the 1996-97 campaign was already one of the most memorable in team history. On a sad note, the season would represent the first without founder Seymour H. Knox, III, who passed away in the spring of 1996. It would also represent the first time in the team's history that it would have new uniforms (red and black replaced blue and gold) as well as a new state-of-the-art arena (HSBC Arena replaced Memorial Auditorium).

The Sabres shocked many of the so-called experts by winning the Northeast Division; the team's first such title since winning the Adams Division championship in 1981. Buffalo's performance seemed a fitting tribute to the memory of Seymour Knox.

The end of the season also brought many notable achievements off the ice. The Sabres were the stars of the NHL's postseason awards banquet. Hasek won the Hart Trophy as league MVP, the first time a goalie had achieved such a feat since 1962. For good measure, Hasek also took home his third Vezina in four years, an equally stunning feat. Michael Peca, a 23-year-old center in just his second full season, joined Craig Ramsay as the only Sabres to win the Selke Trophy, symbolic of the league's best defensive forward. Ted Nolan won the Jack Adams Award as the Coach of the Year.

Lindy Ruff was named the Sabres' head coach at the start of the next season, and led Buffalo to the Eastern Conference Finals. The Sabres eventually fell to the Capitals in six games, but their performance marked the team's best playoff finish since 1980. Hasek once again shone brightly, taking home his fourth Vezina Trophy and becoming the first goaltender ever to win two consecutive Hart Trophies. Earlier in the year, Hasek had also been instrumental in leading the underdog Czech Republic to a Gold Medal at the Winter Olympic Games in Nagano, Japan.

The year ended on a sad note when team co-founder Northrup Knox passed away in July 1998. The Knox brothers' persistence in acquiring a franchise and their determination to keep it in Buffalo will forever resonate with hockey fans in Western New York. Shortly before his death, Knox orchestrated the sale of the team to John, Tim, Michael, and James Rigas of Adelphia Cable Communications.

Buffalo returned to the ECF the following year, this time facing its geographical rival, the Toronto Maple Leafs. In what would be known as the cross-border series, the Sabres defeated Toronto 4-1 to reach the Stanley Cup Finals for just the second time in team history. The Dallas Stars would be the Sabres' opponent and the two teams proved to be evenly matched in the lowest-scoring Stanley Cup in history. With Buffalo trailing 3 games to 2 in Game Six,

Brett Hull slid the puck past Hasek in the third overtime to clinch the Cup for the Stars. Replays would later show that Hull's skate was in the crease, but officials let the goal stand to the dismay of Sabres fans.

Buffalo celebrated its 30th anniversary season in the NHL in 1999-2000 with the impressive rookie debuts of Martin Biron and Maxim Afinogenov. The development of Biron and Afinogenov combined with the late-season additions of veterans Doug Gilmour and Chris Gratton enabled the Sabres to continue their winning ways as they began their fourth decade of play in the NHL.

The 2000-01 campaign will be remembered as one of the most successful seasons in recent memory as the Sabres won the fourth-most games in team history (46). Once again, Miroslav Satan led the team in goals scored and total points in the regular season and had a stellar postseason with three goals, a team-high 10 assists and 13 total points. The season also turned out to be a breakout year for several members who had career offensive years. J.P. Dumont proved to be a valuable addition, producing career offensive numbers in his first year with the team. Alexei Zhitnik returned to the offensive production of earlier in his career and Rhett Warrener and Jay McKee worked as the team's top defensive tandem. As a whole, the Sabres were the league's top defense, allowing the fewest goals and boasting the best penalty-killing unit. Andreychuk proved that you can go home, returning to the Sabres to score 20 goals, eight on the power play, and add some veteran leadership to a young, yet maturing, hockey club. Another former Sabre returned as Donald Audette, who was acquired at the trade deadline along with Steve Heinze, added another element to the Sabres as the team headed into the postseason. And as he was in past seasons, Hasek proved why he was one of the best goalies in the NHL, posting a 34-24-4 record with 2.11 goals against and 11 shutouts en route to his sixth Vezina Trophy.

Despite not making the playoffs in 2001-02, the Sabres were one of the better teams in the NHL over the second half of the 2002-03 season. Strong offensive years from Satan, Stu Barnes and Tim Connolly as well as the emergence of Taylor Pyatt late in the year were just a few of the bright spots of the season. Plus, the emergence of Biron as one of the league's top goaltenders gave fans much to look forward to.

Ruff became the team's all-time winningest head coach with a 5-2 win over Philadelphia on Feb. 18, 2003. Ales Kotalik broke onto the scene by scoring 21 goals, the second most by a rookie in 2002-03 while Satan once again led the Sabres in goals, assists and points. B. Thomas Golisano became the Sabres' owner in March and brought a new enthusiasm level to the franchise.

The 2003-04 Sabres once again were one of the League's top teams in the second half of the season. Daniel Briere, who came to the club near the end of the 2002-03 season, continued his outstanding play and led the Sabres in assists and points. Dumont and Chris Drury were threats to score while Satan recorded a team-best 29 goals, including four against Atlanta on Feb. 16, 2004. Satan became the first player to ever lead the Sabres in goal scoring for three consecutive seasons. Satan and Maxim Afinogenov each had a hat trick against Washington, Dec. 31, 2003. Rookies Derek Roy, Milan Bartovic and Andrew Peters each had long stints with the Sabres, who played in front of 12 sold-out home crowds.

Following a lockout that forced the league to cancel the entire 2004-2005 season, NHL hockey returned in 2005-06 featuring new rules intended to create a more exciting style of play. Despite low expectations set by many hockey observers, the Sabres turned in a historic season. Led by Lindy Ruff, who would win the Adams Award as Coach of the Year, Buffalo set a franchise record for wins in a season with 52. Rookie goaltender Ryan Miller won 30 games on the season, despite missing 18 games with a broken thumb early in the season. The Sabres featured a tremendously balanced scoring attack, with six 20-goal scorers and 12 players with at least 30 points. Afinogenov led the team with 73 points (22+51), while Chris Drury led all goal-scorers with 30. Seven different players reached career highs in either goals, assists, or points. Perhaps the most impressive offensive player on the season was Briere, who, despite being plagued by injuries for much of the season, recorded 58 points (25+33) in 48 games.

It was also a breakout year for several rookies. In addition to the strong freshman campaign turned in by Miller, Thomas Vanek burst on the scene with 25 goals and 23 assists. Jason Pominville, who appeared in 57 games after being called up from Rochester, showed a terrific scoring touch, collecting 18 goals, while center Paul Gaustad recorded 24 points and added an element of toughness to the lineup.

Buffalo made the playoffs for the first time since the 2000-01 season, and began by knocking off the Philadelphia Flyers in six games. That set up what turned out to be a wild series with conference-rival Ottawa. With Buffalo leading three games to one, Pominville became the first player in NHL history to score a series-clinching, short-handed, overtime goal when he eluded two Ottawa defenders and slipped the puck past goalie Ray Emery. That set up a showdown with the Carolina Hurricanes in the Eastern Conference Finals, where the Sabres eventually lost in seven games.

The 2006-07 season was unlike any other in Sabres history, as the team captured the Presidents' Trophy by putting together the league's best regular season record. The team started out by tying an NHL record with 10 straight wins, before losing in a shootout to Atlanta on Oct. 28. The Sabres went on to post 53 wins, the most in franchise history – one more than in 2005-06. The season was also a success at the turnstiles as they sold out HSBC Arena for all 41 regular season games and nine playoff games. This has not occurred in Buffalo since the days of the legendary Aud in 1979-80.

A contributing factor to the team's success was having four players with more than 30 goals. Daniel Briere led the team with 95 points (32+63), while Thomas Vanek was a close second with 84 points, including a team-high 43 goals. Chris Drury finished with 69 points (43+41) and Jason Pominville capped a terrific sophomore season with 34 goals. Vanek also finished first in the league with a plus-minus rating of plus-47. Adding to the Sabres' depth on offense, the team had 10 players with over 30 points. Rookie Drew Stafford posted strong numbers after being called up from Rochester in mid-season. Stafford played in 41 games and finished with 13 goals and 14 assists. Goaltender Ryan Miller also set a club record with 40 victories after being voted in as a starter for the NHL All-Star game.

Buffalo made it to the playoffs for a second consecutive season. The Sabres eliminated the N.Y. Islanders in five games, and then defeated the N.Y. Rangers 4-2 in the Semifinals. Buffalo advanced to the Conference Finals for the second consecutive year (and fourth time since 1997), before losing in five games to Ottawa.

The 2007-08 season was a drastic change for the Sabres as they failed to make the playoffs after finishing atop the NHL in the regular season standings in 2006-07. The Sabres did see two young stars emerge as Derek Roy and Jason Pominville led the team with 81 and 80 points, respectively. Roy eclipsed the 30-goal mark for the first time in his career as he finished the year with 32 goals. Pominville coupled 27 goals with 53 assists to set a new career high in points. Thomas Vanek continued to show his offensive prowess as he tallied 36 goals and 28 assists on the season. Vanek finished the year with a career high four hat tricks, three of which were natural or uninterrupted. Ryan Miller continued to set team records as he played in an unprecedented 76 games in the regular season, compiling a record of 36-27-10.

Buffalo continued their impressive string of sell-outs as they saw HSBC Arena full for 39 of their 41 home games. The Sabres made history yet again as they hosted the 2008 AMP Winter Classic at Ralph Wilson Stadium in Orchard Park, NY. The Sabres faced the Pittsburgh Penguins in front of 71,217 fans as snow lightly fell on New Years Day. The game was the first outdoor game to be played in the United States and set the record for attendance at an NHL game. Buffalo would lose the historic game 2-1 in a shootout.

The 2008-09 season started with high expectations after the Sabres failed to make the post-season a year before. The team got off to a hot start posting a 6-2-2 record in the month of October. However injuries to leading goal-scorer Thomas Vanek and starting goaltender Ryan Miller late in the year were too much to overcome. Despite a resilient effort in the final two months, Buffalo failed to make the playoffs for a second consecutive season.

Thomas Vanek completed his second career 40-goal season, while leading the league in power-play goals (20). Vanek was also named to his first NHL All-Star game. Derek Roy had another impressive season; he led the team with 70 points (28+42) and was sixth in the league with nine game-winning-goals. Tim Connolly returned to play in 48 games leading the Sabres in plus/minus with +12, and finished the year with 47 points (18+29). Jason Pominville led the team in assists for a second consecutive year with 46. He finished the season, playing in all 82 regular season games for the third consecutive year. Pominville currently holds the Sabres current consecutive games played streak with 334.

The 2009-2010 campaign saw the emergence of one future star and the continuing evolution of another. Sabres defenseman Tyler Myers, the teams' first-round selection (13th overall) in the 2008 Entry Draft, burst onto the NHL stage with an impressive rookie season. Myers led all NHL rookies in ice time (23:44) and assists (37) to help earn the Calder Trophy as the league's top first year player. Ryan Miller also continued to raise his status as one of the league's top netminders. Miller was in the top five all season in every goaltending category, including goals-against average (2.22) and save percentage (.929). Miller's strong season was capped off by winning the Vezina Trophy. Miller also set the franchise record for wins with 41. Overall, the team cracked the 100-point plateau for the ninth time in franchise history and won their sixth division title before falling to the Boston Bruins in the first round of the playoffs.

Following their return to the playoffs, the Sabres entered the 2010-11 season poised to take another step forward. However, after a 3-9-2 start began their descent to the league basement, it looked like the team would instead be taking a step back. When top point scorer Derek Roy (35 points in 35 games) suffered a season-ending injury in late December, the prospects for the Sabres – still eight points out of the final playoff spot in the East – didn't look good.

But the Sabres continued to fight and put together an 8-3-1 record in January to close the gap. On Feb. 22, Terry Pegula announced his purchase of the team at a press conference at HSBC Arena. Pegula's arrival invigorated both the fans and the team, who welcomed their new owner with a seven-game unbeaten streak and finished the season on a 16-4-4 run to snatch the final Eastern Conference playoff spot.

Thomas Vanek led the Sabres in goal scoring for the fifth straight year, and also led the team in points for the first time in his career with 73 (32+41). Vanek is the only player in Sabres history to lead the team in goals for more than three consecutive seasons. Tyler Ennis had a strong debut season, ranking fourth among all NHL rookies with 49 points (20+29) – the most by a Buffalo rookie since Derek Plante had 56 in 1993-94. The Sabres were eliminated in the first round of the playoffs after a Game 7 loss to Philadelphia.

History of the Sabres Uniform 1970-2011

Equipped with one of the National Hockey League's two new teams, the Knox Brothers sought a name for the club that would accompany the Vancouver Canucks into the 1970-71 season. A contest brought about the name "Sabres," which just needed a logo to become the trademark of hockey on the Niagara Frontier. The Sabres crest would remain identical over the first 26 years. The first major change to the team's look came in 1996-97, which accompanied a new home for the Buffalo Sabres (the team moved from Memorial Auditorium into its new address of HSBC Arena).

The crest in which would adorn the blue, white and gold jerseys of Buffalo Sabres players from October 1970 until April 1996 reflected the team's name. Along with the Buffalo appeared two crossed sabres "renowned as a clean, sharp, decisive and penetrating weapon on offense, as well as a strong parrying weapon on defense," according to team Public Relations Director Chuck Burr's 1970 press release.

A few minor changes were seen in the Buffalo sweaters over the first 26 years, mostly simple accessory changes. After adding players' last names to the back of the sweaters a few years earlier, 1978-79 marked the first season the team's jerseys did not have drawstrings at the neckline and the debut of the team's crest on the shoulders. While the next season was Buffalo's 10th anniversary campaign, a patch honoring that winter's Olympic games in Lake Placid, N.Y., was the notable change on the uniforms. The 1980 Winter Olympics is where the legendary "Miracle on Ice" would take place, and where the Sabres held their 1980 training camp. It was probably fitting that 10 years later, a Buffalo Sabres' 20th anniversary logo patch was embroidered on the front right shoulder of the players' uniforms for 1989-90. Two years later, the Sabres joined the other NHL teams in wearing a commemorative patch for the league's 75th anniversary, and fans even had the opportunity to see it on both the home and road jerseys as Buffalo joined 15 other teams in the season-long celebration. For the second half of that season, the Sabres wore their road jerseys at home and donned the home jerseys for away games, to complement the "original six" teams who wore "throwback jerseys." A Stanley Cup centennial patch appeared on the 1992-93 uniforms. Buffalo would again recognize a significant anniversary with a special 25th anniversary logo, which was designed for the team's 1994-95 campaign. Players wore the fifth patch in seven years on the team's sweaters in 1995-96 (bearing jersey number one), remembering former NHL goalie Roger Crozier, who played six of his 14 seasons in the league in Buffalo.

The 1996-97 season began a new era in Buffalo Sabres hockey with a new home, new colors and a new logo. The Sabres' new colors would be black, white, red, gray and silver, featuring a white buffalo head as the new team logo. A secondary logo of a "B" with the familiar sabre piercing through it would also be featured on the shoulder of the new jerseys. In their first season in the new uniforms, the Sabres honored the memory of co-founder Seymour H. Knox III with a circular patch bearing the initials SHK III.

On Nov. 22, 2000, the Sabres unveiled the team's third jersey against the Philadelphia Flyers. The third jersey was a tribute to the original sweater, while incorporating colors and elements from the current design, unveiled in 1996. The organization chose from over 50 different concepts and developed a blend of the 1970s blue and gold crest, featuring the traditional circle and crossed Sabres logo, adorned on a red-based jersey, trimmed in the team's black and silver of the 1990s. The word "BUFFALO" appeared on the lower trim to signify the team's proud attachment to its hometown. The third jersey also featured the current Sabres white buffalo-head logo appearing on the shoulders. The Sabres also wore their original blue and yellow colors with the former logo and design for the season finale, April 4, 2003, against New Jersey.

The Sabres new uniform scheme, unveiled on September 16, 2006, took its inspiration from the original Sabres uniform (1971-96) and second uniform (1996-2005). The design was a collaborative effort between the Sabres and Reebok International. The new "blue and gold" colors were altered to a deeper navy blue and richer gold that had a greater visual impact both in person and on television broadcasts. Silver accents and a revised "B-Sabre" logo were carried over from the team's second uniform. Unique in the NHL, the new uniforms had player numbers on the front of the jersey. Buffalo also debuted a new alternate uniform that was the original blue uniform from 1970 with the player number on the front like on the newly designed uniforms. The alternate jersey was only worn for the 2006-07 season.

For the Winter Classic game on January 1, 2008, the Sabres wore a modified version of the team's original white jerseys. This was the only time the jersey was worn that season.

The Sabres introduced a new third jersey in 2008-09 that incorporated design elements from the original uniforms while linking elements from the current jerseys. The team's original road uniform (1971-96) was updated to incorporate the darker navy blue and rich gold featured in the current uniforms along with silver accents on the stripes to give dimension to the original design. The player numbers appear on the front of the uniform and a neck tie will be incorporated similar to what was worn by the team the first seven years Buffalo was in the league. The original crossed Sabres logo also features silver accents to give a beveled look to the team's original logo. The jersey was designed to incorporate the design elements of the Reebok EDGE uniform system.

During the 2010-11 season the Sabres returned to their roots, adopting a uniform at home and on the road that recalled elements of the first uniform in franchise history. At home, the Sabres utilized the team's previous third jersey. On the road, they donned a white jersey that incorporates the same accent elements of the updated home jersey. The team also unveiled an all new 40th anniversary uniform. This classically-designed uniform is a tribute to not only the history of Buffalo hockey, but early NHL jersey designs of the past. The 40th anniversary alternate jersey was worn 12 times at HSBC Arena during the 2010-11 season and continues to serve as the team's alternate jersey in 2011-12.
